Jury stage in the "Großer Preis des Mittelstandes" (Grand Prix of Small and Medium Business)

After nomination for the premiere award, Consist Software Solutions has reached the second stage in the competition for the "Großer Preis des Mittelstandes".

Kiel – After another nomination for a premiere special award in the competition for the "Großer Preis des Mittelstandes", Consist Software Solutions has now reached the jury stage. That puts the IT service provider among the roughly 25% of nominated companies who have reached this stage. From the "jury list", the summary of all the companies reaching the second stage of the 2016 competition, the jurors of the twelve regional juries and the two special juries will select the winners and finalists by July. The prizes will then be awarded again in autumn. The jury's decisions will not be announced until the evening of the awards ceremony.

Consist won the award in 2011 and was a finalist in 2009 for the "Großer Preis des Mittelstandes" in the economic region of Schleswig-Holstein Hamburg. In 2015, Consist was nominated for a premiere special award and made it to the jury stage.

The "Großer Preis des Mittelstandes" is a well-respected and coveted award. It is given by the Oskar-Patzelt-Stiftung each year. The competition is being held for the 22th time in 2016.
