Consist names new Sales Manager Staffing

Consist has added Henryk Orantek to its sales team as the new Sales Manager Staffing. His previous career features many years of experience in sales and IT.

Kiel – Since August 2016, Henryk Orantek has been the new Sales Manager Staffing at Consist. He succeeds Eggert Gotthard, who successfully held this position and others for decades and ended his active career on April 1, 2016. The Sales Manager Staffing assists clients in transferring project tasks. The support of projects with qualified know-how from an extensive pool of specialists is one of Consist's core business activities.

"With the position of Sales Manager Staffing at Consist, I have accepted a task with great responsibility. I am particularly excited by the fact that I will have a great deal of flexibility and the opportunity to make use of my previous experience and knowledge," explains Henryk Orantek.

"I am happy we have succeeded in gaining a true professional in Henryk Orantek, who understands both sales and IT. He will be an asset to our sales team. And I am certain that he will also be a popular contact for our clients," says Consist's Head of Sales, Arne Kaufmann.

Henryk Orantek was last employed as Account Manager IT at Ferchau. His tasks there included sales of IT services, staffing of internal and external IT personnel, and personnel recruiting and management. Before that, he was employed as Account Manager at euro engineering, with a similar range of tasks. The new member of the sales team brings IT experience to the table from his time with the military (Air Force). There, he was an application programmer and IT officer, among other things.
