Consist supports family sponsorship project of “Kinderschutzbund Kiel”

The special offer "family sponsors" of the Child Protection Association Kiel for young families and single parents is increasingly in demand.

Kiel – time to read a book, time to take care of the children when it gets too stressful, or even just for a good advice - that is something that many young families and single parents wish for. Especially if there is no immediate social network available, which could be a reliable support. The employees of Consist Software Solutions GmbH have therefore decided to send this year's corporate donation over 4,000 euros to the "Familienpaten" project of the Child Protection Association Kiel.

In this project, specially prepared voluntary sponsors are engaged by keeping regular contact with young families or single-parent families. They organize joint trips, also take care of the children from time to time and are willing to listen to their worries and needs.

"With small help in everyday life, we would like to support practically and in a lifelike manner." Manfred Lübke, chairman of the Child Protection Association Kiel, sees the project as a very good opportunity to link small to great, for example, once more help and advice appear necessary Should be sought. Then the volunteer sponsors will gladly establish direct contact with the counseling team at the Child Protection Center.

"We are delighted to be able to secure the use of further family sponsors with our donation." So Martin Lochte-Holtgreven Managing Director of Consist. This is a growing demand and is therefore to be expanded fur-
